Dear MuckRock Editors:

This is in response to your request dated 28 May 2013, received in the Information Management Services Office of the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO) on 28 May 2013. Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), you are requesting "NRO Oral History Program: An Interview with Robert McNamara, by R. Cargill Hall, March 25, 1999."

Your request was processed in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended. A thorough search of our files and databases located nine pages responsive to your request that have previously been released in full. The document is being released in full to you, as well. Pursuant to your 27 July email, we are including herewith a printed hard copy of the document in response to your request.

The FOIA authorizes federal agencies to assess fees for record services. Based upon the information provided, you have been placed in the "other" category of requesters, which means you are responsible for the cost of search time exceeding two hours ($44.00/hour) and reproduction fees (.15 per page) exceeding 100 pages. In this case, no assessable fees were incurred in processing your request. Additional information about fees can be found on our website at www.nro.gov.

If you have any questions, please call the Requester Service Center at (703) 227-9326 and reference case number F13-0093.

Sincerely,

Douglas J. Davis
Chief, Information Review
and Release Group
